News Release

Convergia signs on as Libelium's Pan-American Value-Added Distributor of Smart World IoT Solutions

Miami, United States, June 10, 2019 - Convergia and Libelium signed a Pan-American Libelium product distribution agreement to serve Canada, United States, Mexico, Central and South America. The deal extends Convergia marketplace of connectivity and IoT Solutions with Libelium's advanced edge computing, sensors and solutions.

The distribution agreement further enhances Convergia connectivity offerings, which includes the Connectivity by Convergia (CxC) SIM Platform – The Pan-American multi-operator cellular platform for SIM connectivity life cycle management and CxC IoT App Factory. The CxC SIM platform enables Libelium IoT products on the world's largest and best cellular operators and the CxC IoT App Factory accelerates vertical market cloud applications to market. Sandra Pradilla, Libelium Distributor Manager, states; "Libelium is enthused to add Convergia as our Pan-American Value-Added Distributor and recognizes Convergia as a strong partner to lead suppliers to large Enterprise and Industrials in their digital transformation with connected products."

Alex Bitar, Founder and President of Convergia, states, "Convergia recognizes Libelium as leaders of advanced connected products and solutions. Libelium takes a solutions approach to IoT, unlike others that seem to be a "bag of parts" that customers must figure out how to apply to a business use case. We are enthused to distribute Libelium products in our Pan-American market."
